

How would the following impact your confidence that voters are free from threats of violence, or intimidation while voting in-person during the November election?

